Key Highlights:

- In 2019, Bacardi Limited revived its previous Breezer brand with Ready-To-Drink vodka mixes. Cocktails that are ready to drink are packaged in vividly coloured decorative cans and bottles, making them more appealing and shareable on social media sites. Maintaining taste, quality ingredients, and authenticity is a huge problem for important actors.

Analyst View:

The global vodka business is being propelled by millennials' growing interest in cocktail culture. Companies are currently experimenting with new vodka cocktail flavors, which is encouraging consumers to try more expensive alcoholic beverages. To keep up with these quick shifts in consumer tastes, key players are developing new products. For example, Pernod Ricard released L'Orbe, a Caviar-infused vodka, in 2019. In addition, Hilton Head Distillery debuted 'Aermoor,' a vodka with a birthday cake flavour.
